The Community Cookbook is back!

Published: November 21, 2023

Categories: Events | Programs

Introducing our favourite dishes and customs to someone is one of the universal forms of welcoming. The community cookbook project invites people of all ages, cultural backgrounds and abilities to share favourite recipes with neighbours and contribute to the creation of a community cookbook we can all enjoy.

The Community Cookbook is open for submissions again! Submit your favourite recipes — and the stories behind them.

Submissions are open until Dec. 31, 2023 at 5 p.m.
