Event overview

April 7, 2025

6:00 pm to 7:00 pm

Join representatives from Elections Canada and learn about working and participating in federal elections. This workshop is an opportunity to learn, share and connect with like-minded people who are passionate about democracy and representation. Whether you're interested in contributing to the electoral process or empowering others to do so, this session offers invaluable guidance and resources.

What to expect

- Insights into working at federal elections, including paid opportunities;
- Tools to overcome barriers in the electoral process faced by youth, Indigenous Peoples and other groups;
- A comprehensive overview of voting and registration.
