Event overview

June 21, 2025

2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

Join us to celebrate National Indigenous Peoples Day by making your own personalized paddle keychain and learning about important symbols from the Coast Salish culture. The Coast Salish people are known for their canoe culture, and you can find these small carved paddles adorning their regalia.

Materials for this program will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis.

This is a drop-in event for all ages. Due to room capacity, the drop-in sessions will be capped at 40 participants at a time.
