Event overview

November 26, 2025

7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

Join fellow community members for a discussion of The Berry Pickers by Amanda Peters.

Participants can attend at the library or via Zoom. All are welcome!

Registration is required by 12 p.m. on the day of the discussion. For those attending virtually, the Zoom link will be sent to the email address you used to register. The meeting link and reading guide will be emailed on the day of the event.

We have a limited number of copies for registrants to borrow, based on the order that they register. Registrants will be contacted if a copy is available. If all of the copies are spoken for, you can try to find one by:

- Placing a hold on a regular circulating copy in the NVCL catalogue;
- Checking at other local libraries, such as North Vancouver District Library or West Vancouver Memorial Library.

Do you have questions or need help finding a copy? Email info@nvcl.ca or call 604-998-3450.

About the book

"July 1962. A Mi'kmaq family from Nova Scotia arrives in Maine to pick blueberries for the summer.

Weeks later, four-year-old Ruthie, the family's youngest child, vanishes mysteriously. She is last seen by her six-year-old brother, Joe, sitting on her favourite rock at the edge of a berry field. Joe will remain deeply affected by his sister's disappearance for years to come. In Boston, a young girl named Norma grows up as the only child of an affluent family. Her father is emotionally distant, her mother frustratingly overprotective. Norma is often troubled by recurring dreams and visions that seem more like memories than imagination. As she grows older, Norma slowly comes to realize there is something her parents aren't telling her. Unwilling to abandon her intuition, she will spend decades trying to uncover this family secret” [publisher].
