11:00 am to 12:30 pm

This workshop will guide you through each stage of the job application process with clear, simple, and practical strategies. We will explore effective strategies for job searching, understanding job descriptions, applying for different jobs, and following up on applications. The facilitator is Azam Shamsi, employment services specialist, CDP.

Topics include:

- Understanding Canada's job search process;
- Effective strategies for finding job opportunities;
- How to read and interpret job postings and descriptions;
- Identifying key skills and qualifications;
- Best practices for submitting job applications;
- Professional strategies for following up with employers;
