6:00 pm to 7:00 pm

North Shore libraries invite new immigrants to attend an ONLINE information session on Zoom to learn about the Library Champions project, a unique adult volunteering opportunity.

Are you a newcomer looking for:

- Canadian volunteer work experience?
- Information about library and other community services?
- A way to give back to your community?
- Better communication skills?
- More confidence?
- New friends and connections?
- A better understanding of your community?

The Library Champions project offers all of these things and much more!
