Did you know that singing encourages your brain to release feel-good chemicals like endorphins? It also encourages connection and helps to build trust! Time to warm up those vocal cords and dance the day away in our very own library karaoke lounge. Sign up with your friends or family and meet some new people!

Dress in your V-Day best, and spread the love! We will provide light refreshments and snacks.

For families and youth under the age of 15.

Registration is required. The max group size for registration is 4. Dropping in will be permitted if space permits.
