Event overview

February 3, 2026

1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

Step into the rich traditional history of Coast Salish wool weaving in this hands-on, guided workshop. Learn traditional forms and techniques passed down through generations, while gaining a deeper understanding of the cultural significance of wool weaving on these lands.

Join us to learn from Squamish Nation weaver Sam Seward (ancestral name Nekwimetstn), who will share their knowledge, stories and practice as you create your own woven piece to take home.

For questions or more information, please contact info@nvcl.ca or call 604-998-3450

All materials will be provided. Registration is required. This program is intended for adults.

This program is offered in partnership with Impact North Shore.
