This interactive workshop supports you in building confidence and independence in your everyday travel. Offered by BEST Mobility, it will help you navigate public transit, explore transportation options, and plan your trips safely and effectively. You'll also learn how to prepare for the transition away from driving and become more resourceful in staying connected to your community. Through practical tips, hands-on learning, and group discussion, you'll have the opportunity to ask questions, share your experiences, and connect with others in a welcoming and supportive environment.
