Event overview

March 7, 2024

7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

City Library has a new catalogue, BiblioCommons. The catalogue is used to search for physical materials and digital resources, and to place holds. It also allows users to participate in the library community by rating and reviewing items. We think you're going to like the improvements!

Join us for this class on navigating the catalogue, setting up your account, accessing your dashboard, placing holds, creating lists and sharing reviews. This will be a hands-on class. Use one of the Collaboratory computers or bring your own.

Registration is recommended, but dropping in will be possible, space permitting. Limit of 12 computers in the Collaboratory.

Registration is closed
