Book sale

City Library typically hosts two book sales every year — one in the summer and one in the winter. At book sales, you'll be able to select from popular fiction, nonfiction, mysteries and more — for all ages.

We are not accepting donations for book sales at this time. Here are some places where you can donate books.

Winter book sale

Make book-giving a part of your holiday traditions! Stock up at our winter book sale, held in the library lobby Nov. 22 – 28 (while supplies last).
