Kanopy, an on-demand streaming service, has an extensive library of more than 20,000 classic films, documentaries, children's programming and lots more. The collection is available for residents of the City of North Vancouver who have a City Library card. If you reside outside of the city, please check with your local library for availability.

Using Kanopy

If you need help accessing or using Kanopy, check out our Niche tutorial, or stop by a library information desk for assistance.
