Library card application form

Once we receive your application we will contact you within approximately one business day with your new library card. With online registration you will have 90-day access to our digital library, and you can place holds on physical materials, but you will need to visit the library in-person to upgrade to a full account.

Please note that online registration is only available for North Shore residents, and residents of Metro Vancouver. If you are visiting from outside these areas you will need to register in person at the North Vancouver City Library.
