Use experience

User experience

I understand that staff support will be limited, and that the Recording Station is a learning environment; therefore, all users are encouraged to check out the tutorials and other learning resources for help using the equipment and software available. I have...

? never used recording equipment or software before, and will allow time during my booking to learn how to use it

? some experience, but will allow time during my booking to familiarize myself with the equipment and software

? used the recording station before, and I am comfortable using the equipment and software within my set booking time

Share Content

Do you post your projects to any content sharing sites, e.g. YouTube? If so, share the link(s) to your channel/website below, and tag your productions with #NVCLrecords, and we can feature your creations on our website!

Form Submission

By clicking "Submit", you agree that you are expected to be able to use the Recording Station equipment and software unassisted, and will allow time in your booking to familiarize yourself with the station. You agree that you will refer to the tutorials or attend a group technology coaching session if you need further help.

You also understand that this is a booking request, and is not secured until you receive confirmation from NVCL. You also understand that bookings require a minimum of 24 hours' notice, but that it may take longer to confirm a booking.
