Which challenge did you do?

- ? Reread your roots — the books from our past that mean the most to you.
- ? Find a stump, count the rings ... then read that many pages in a book!
- ? Read a book you have never heard of before
- ? Read a Teen Summer Writing Contest short story.
- ? Read a fiction or nonfiction book set in nature.
- ? Make a fairy garden or paint rocks.
- ? Go on a hike
- ? Look through a cookbook or recipe and make something.
- ? Make a bookmark with a nature theme.
- ? Read a book with a map in it.
- ? Read a fairy tale, or an adaptation of one.
- ? Read a book about someone who is on an adventure, or lost or stranded.
- ? Read a fiction or nonfiction book by an Indigenous author.
- ? Go on a reading picnic with friends.
- ? Watch a sunrise or sunset.
- ? Pick up trash in a park or along the beach.

Optional! To earn an extra prize draw entry, share proof of having completed a challenge. You can do this by either:

- Visiting the 2nd floor desk at City Library and showing proof to the staff member that you completed the challenge.

- Or sending an email to teens@nvcl.ca For example, this could be a photo of you at a little free library, the craft or artwork you created, etc.

I would like to receive emails about the 2026 teen summer reading challenge and related programs.

? No
