City Library launches The Palace Project

Published: September 22, 2026

Categories: Collections | Digital resources | Library news

Calling all ebook and e-audiobook fans! You can now use your City Library card to access the Palace Project app and website. The Palace Project platform is designed by libraries, for libraries. It is a new way to enjoy all your Libby/OverDrive materials, plus you can access a selection of Audible Exclusive audiobooks.

Find out more on our digital library page.